NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT
FOREIGN NATIONAL

I, ______________________, acknowledge and understand that any defense articles\(^1\) and/or technical data\(^2\) related to defense articles on the U.S. Munitions List to which I have access or which is disclosed to me in the course of my work on the Swedish Network Management Center and identified as such on a Data Submittal Request (DSR) Form is subject to export control under the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (Title 22, Code of Federal Regulations, Parts 120-130) (ITAR). I hereby certify that I will not, nor will I knowingly permit others to disclose, export, or transfer, in any manner, to any foreign national other than a national of the United States or a national of Sweden who has signed a Non-Disclosure Agreement in substantially the same form or to any foreign country other than the United States such defense articles and/or defense services\(^3\) without prior written approval of the Office of Defense Trade Controls, U.S. Department of State.

\(^1\) Defense article includes any item or technical data designated in the U.S. Munitions List (USML). This term includes technical data recorded or stored in any physical form, models, mockups or other items that reveal technical data directly relating to items designated in the USML. It does not include basic marketing information on function or purpose or general system descriptions. ITAR § 120.6.

\(^2\) Technical data includes: (1) information which is required for the design, development, production, manufacture, assembly, operation, repair, testing, maintenance or modification of defense articles, including information in the form of blueprints, drawings, photographs, plans, instructions and documentation; (2) classified information relating to defense articles and defense services; (3) information covered by an invention secrecy order, and (4) software directly related to defense articles. As defined in the ITAR, the term "technical data" does not include information concerning general scientific, mathematical or engineering principles commonly taught in schools, colleges and universities or information in the public domain. It also does not include basic marketing information on function or purpose or general system descriptions of defense articles. ITAR § 120.10.

\(^3\) Defense service means: (1) the furnishing of assistance (including training) to foreign persons, whether in the United States or abroad in the design, development, engineering, manufacture, production, assembly, testing, repair, maintenance, modification, operation, demilitarization, destruction, processing or use of defense articles; (2) the furnishing to foreign persons of any technical data controlled under the ITAR, whether in the United States or abroad or; (3) military training of foreign units and forces, regular and irregular, including formal or informal instruction of foreign persons in the United States or abroad or by correspondence courses, technical, educational, or information publications and media of all kinds, training aid, orientation, training exercise, and military advice. ITAR § 120.9.
This Non-Disclosure Agreement does not apply to data that is not technical data as defined in the ITAR or to data that is disclosed to me that is not subject to the Technical Assistance Agreement dated as of 29 February, 2000 between Universal Space Network and Swedish Space Corporation.
